Cynthia Stein made a motion, John Siggers seconded, and the Board voted unanimously to adopt the following Board policy: If an applicant applies for a Georgia license from a state that Georgia does not reciprocate with, Board staff may send a letter to the applicant explaining that the applicant may sit for the written and practical examination. Upon passing examination scores, staff may administratively process the application unless there are legal or other issues that the Board will have to consider.

After reviewing a letter from the Ohio State Board of Cosmetology, the Board determined that it can no longer reciprocate licenses from that state. Ohio will no longer reciprocate with any other state, and they are requiring that all of their applicants sit for the exam.

In an effort to streamline applications processing, the Board reviewed their reciprocity requirements and reviewed the list of states and their reciprocity statuses with those states. They clarified several issues regarding hours and exam requirements. Following this discussion, Cynthia Stein made a motion to approve the following for each state and the District of Columbia:
